

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. GENESIS AND MODERN SCIENCE.

Illustrated with astronomical plates, a fine astronomical photograph, maps, colored diagrams, etc. By WARREN R. PERCE. Small pica, 12mo, cloth, 375 pages. $1.50.

A carefully written treatise, based upon the Nebular Hypothesis, and demonstrating the scientific accuracy and literal truthfulness of the scriptural records of the Creation and the Deluge, by means of full and exhaustive references to most recent discoveries in astronomy and geology, and also by numerous citations of authorities in paleontology, botany, zoölogy, anthropology, and other sciences.

OUTLINES OF A PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION.

Based on Psychology and History. By AUGUSTE SABATIER. 348 pages. $2.00.

The threefold purpose of this work is to deal with Religion and its Origin, Christianity and its Essence, Dogma and its Nature. Under the first head the author treats of the Psychological Origin and the Nature of Religion, Religion and Revelation, Miracle and Inspiration, and the Religious Development of Humanity, and thus prepares the way for the introduction and development of Christianity.

A VIEW OF THE ATONEMENT.

By the Rev. JAMES T. HUTCHESON, D.D. 12mo, cloth. Price, $1.00.

Dr. Hutcheson in this able work shows very clearly that the current popular views of the Atonement are untenable. The Atonement of our Redeemer was neither a penal act, done to propitiate a wrathful Father, nor was it a price paid to the devil for the ransom of mankind. With much ability and patient logic, Dr. Hutcheson proves that the Atonement was the result of the Father's love. "God so loved us, that he gave His only begotten Son" to, and for, the human race.

THE BEAUTY OF HOLINESS.

A Manual Concerning the Worship of the Church. By the Rev. J. A. REGISTER, S.T.D., Rector of St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, New York. Square 16mo. 200 pages. Illustrated. Paper cover, 30 cents net; cloth, 60 cents net.

VINDICATION OF ANGLICAN ORDERS

By the Rev. ARTHUR LOWNDES, D.D. In two volumes, 8vo, cloth, gilt, 400 pages each. Price $5.00 net.

From many complimentary letters received from well-known scholars, we submit but two excerpts for want of space.

The Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., D.C.L., and Bishop of New York, writes (Nov. 1897):

"I have been strongly impressed with its exceptional excellence in many unusual respects. Its singular clearness, succinctness, justness of statement and admirable arrangement make it, I think, a work of lasting value. It ought to be in the hands of every one to whom our Orders are matters of interest and concern."

The Rev. Theodore M. Riley, S.T.D., sometime Professor of Ecclesiastical History at Nashotah, and now Professor at the General Theological Seminary, New York, writes (Nov. 1897):

"Its interest is as remarkable as its research and its learning, and it seems to me its unanswerable truth and appositeness. I know of no book of such present value, and I am sure it will receive hereafter permanent attention. Its necessarily polemic tone will not diminish the weight of its arguments, and its far-reaching thought, its great fairness, its truly ecumenical spirit, its appreciation of antiquity and of the present venerable East will carry its force far beyond our own communion."

The Living Church, in a long and scholarly review (Dec. 4, 1897), says:

"It is a sincere pleasure to welcome this fearless, well ordered and valuable vindication of the validity of Anglican Orders against the attacks made upon them by Rome."

"There is so much in these volumes which is of real value, so many weighty arguments that are urged with forcible and sometimes crushing effect, that we welcome this work as an important vindication of the position of the Anglican Church."

VOLUME LXVIII

"Well to celebrate these religious and sacred days

—HOOKER

NEW YORK
JAMES POTT & CO., PUBLISHERS
CHURCH MISSIONS HOUSE
FOURTH AVENUE AND 22^D STREET

PREFACE.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for 1898 contains no new features.

The Editor begs to explain to his correspondents that the stated number of communicants is in every case taken from the official returns in the Diocesan Journal, and that requests for alterations cannot be complied with, as it would be unfair and misleading to do so in individual cases and not in all.

Once more the Editor takes this opportunity to express his grateful thanks to all who have aided him in his work by apt criticism, thoughtful suggestion, or laborious compilation. He trusts that they and many others will continue their help in the coming year.

The invariable use of the Form of Return for Corrections, to be found facing page 862, is the only sure way of securing accuracy, and the Editor respectfully begs the clergy to avail themselves of it.

A copy of the YEAR BOOK is sent, with the compliments of the Editor and Publishers, to every Diocesan Secretary. If it does not reach its destination, a favor will be conferred on the Publishers by notifying them to that effect.

All communications relating to the ALMANAC, whether in the way of suggestions or corrections, ought to be mailed, not to the Publishers or to individual members of the firm, or as an incidental remark in a private letter, but to Chronological Eras.

The year 1898 corresponds to the year 7406-07 of the Byzantine Era; to 5656-59 of the Jewish Era, the year 5659 beginning at sunset on September 16th; to 2651 since the Foundation of Rome, according to Varro; to 2674 of the Olympiads (the second year of the 669th Olympiad beginning July 1, 1898); to 2558 of the Japanese Era; to 1315-16 of the Mohammedan Era, the year 1316 beginning on May 22, 1898. The 128d year of the Independence of the United States of America begins on July 4, 1898.

Eclipses—1898.

In the year 1898 there will be six eclipses, three of the Sun and three of the Moon, as follows:
 I. A partial eclipse of the Moon January 7th, visible in the eastern portions of North and South America, and in Europe, Asia and Africa. All dates are in local mean time.

Magnitude of the eclipse, 0.157 of the Moon's diameter on the southern limb. The point of first contact with the shadow will be 169° from the northern point of the Moon's limb toward the east.

II. A total eclipse of the Sun January 21st, invisible in America. The path of central or total eclipse passes through the central parts of Africa, India, and western China, and terminates at sunset in eastern Siberia. As a partial eclipse it will be visible over the southern and eastern portions of Europe, and over nearly the whole of Asia and Africa.

III. A partial eclipse of the Moon July 3d, invisible in America.

IV. An annular eclipse of the Sun July 18th, visible in the South Pacific, northern New Zealand, Patagonia, Southern Chili and the Argentine Republic.

V. A partial eclipse of the Sun December 12th-13th, visible only in the Antarctic Ocean.

VI. A total eclipse of the Moon December 27th, visible throughout North and South America, Europe, Asia and Africa. The magnitude of this eclipse is 1.384 times the Moon's diameter. The times of beginning and ending for several places in this country are as follows:

ALMANAC FOR 1898.

Why doth one day excel another,
 When as all the light of every day in the year is of the sun ?
 By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished :
 And He altered seasons and feasts,
 Some of them hath He made high days, and hallowed them,
 And some of them hath He made ordinary days.

—Ecclesiasticus, xxxiii. 7, 8, 9.

CHURCH EVENTS OF THE PAST YEAR.

The American Church has been called upon to lose the presence on earth of two of her Bishops—Nelson Somerville Rulison, the second Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, and John Brockenbrough Newton, the Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia.

The event which will make the year 1897 memorable in the annals of the Church was the meeting of the Fourth Lambeth Conference. The subjects dealt with, as is shown by the Encyclical Letter and the resolutions and reports, cover a very wide range of subjects. The reports of the committees are on the organization of the Anglican Communion, religious communities, critical study of Holy Scripture, foreign missions, reformation movements on the continent of Europe, Church unity, international arbitration, industrial problems, the Book of Common Prayer, duties of the Church to the colonies, and degrees in divinity. It cannot be said that the resolutions adopted are of an emphatic or positive nature. At the same time it must be confessed that the great problems which will confront the Church during the next decade are most certainly those connected with what are called the social questions. The relations of capital and labor; arbitration, local and international; the attitude of the Church to the wage-earning classes—these and such moral questions as temperance, purity, and the sanctity of marriage are those which the Church will have to grapple with in dead earnest if she is to mould men's lives after the pattern of Christ. These are just such questions which cannot be settled by any decrees. They require to be pressed home to the consideration of each congregation. Enduring results can only come about in proportion as the laity themselves resolve to discountenance among each other infractions of the moral and royal laws.

A forward step has been taken towards the organization of the Anglican Communion by the strong recommendation of the provincial system. The Encyclical Letter says:

“We desire to encourage the natural and spontaneous formation of provinces, so that no Bishop may be left to act absolutely alone, and we think it desirable that, in accordance with the ancient custom of the Western Church, the Metropolitans of these provinces should be known as Archbishops, recommending, however, that such titles should not be assumed without previous communication with the other Bishops of the Communion, with a view to general recognition. We think it would be well for the further consolidation of all provincial action that every Bishop, at his consecration, should take the Oath of Canonical Obedience to his own Metropolitan.”

The central consultative body for supplying information and advice which it is proposed to establish will have to justify its existence by the wisdom of its proceedings.

No one can read the reports and the resolutions without being struck by a great sense of calmness and of strength. Certainly each Conference seems to go on “from strength to strength.”

THAT PORTION OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

KNOWN IN LAW AS

“THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.”

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself “indebted, under God, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection,” and from which, in the preface to her Book of Common Prayer, she has formally declared that she is “far from intending to depart in any essential point of doctrine, discipline, or worship.”

She consists now of fifty-eight Dioceses and of nineteen Missionary Dioceses or districts, within the United States, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

Guild of S. James the Apostle. [Founded on the Feast of S. James, 1894.]

Provoost, Horace W. Whayman, Esq., F.R.S.A., Bexley Hall, Gambier, O. Warden, Miss M. E. Kershaw. Chaplain, Rev. Ernest V. Shaylor. Recorder, H. Stow Garlick, M.D.

Objects: (1) To assist the Clergy in propagating, defending, and maintaining the Catholic Faith; and to spread a knowledge of the Doctrines of the Church, especially those having reference to the Holy Trinity, the Incarnation and Atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Sacraments. (2) To oppose Latitudinarianism, Rationalism, and Infidelity. (3) To revive and maintain a religious observance of all the offices of the Church—by promoting the public administration of Holy Baptism, Confirmation, frequent Communion, regular attendance at Daily Prayer, and a proper observance of all Fasts, Festivals, and Commemorations. (4) To assist the Clergy in parochial and mission work, without encroaching upon their special duties, and to uphold their proper spiritual authority. (5) To support the Clergy in the promotion of decency, order, and reverence in public worship. (6) To aid in the endowment, building, repair, and decoration of Churches, the education of children, and other beneficent designs. (7) To encourage the practice of Piety, Virtue, and Charity; to teach the ignorant, assist the weak, succour the distressed, console the afflicted, relieve the poor, visit the sick, and help to bury the dead. (8) To promote the Unity of Christians.

Guild of the Iron Cross.

The Guild was founded in 1888, in S. Clement's Church, Philadelphia, and consists of clerical and lay members pledged to Temperance, Iteverence, and Chastity.

The Guild aims at the promotion of morality on a thoroughly catholic and sacramental basis. It aims at strictness of life rather than increase of numbers.

Fr. Field is the Chaplain-General in the United States. The greater number of the members belonging to the Guild are scattered through the country. It also has members in Japan, Corea, and Africa. The central office is 45 Joy Street, Boston, Mass.

WESTERN TEXAS.

MISSIONARY JURISDICTION.

LIMITS.—The counties of Culhoun, Jackson, Lavacca, Gonzales, Caldwell, Hays, Blanco, Llano, San Saba, McCulloch, Concho, Green, and Tom, in the State of Texas, together with all the counties and territories in said State south and southwesterly thereof, and Brewster County.

Population, 281,000. Area, 110,000 sq. m.

NOTE.—By action of the General Convention, 1895, the counties of Brown, Runnels, and Coleman were added to the Diocese of Dallas, and all the following counties west of the Pecos in the State of Texas (El Paso, Reeves, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Foley, Buchel, and Pecos) were taken from Western Texas and added to New Mexico Mission. The county of Brewster, which evidently ought to have been included in the transfer, was not done so by the wording of the resolution.

NOTE.—Until the word "communicant" is defined for statistical purposes, the returns will be misleading. Some parishes return the number of persons confirmed, others those that have been confirmed and have communicated some time or other in their lives, others those who have communicated within the past year, others only those who communicated three times during the past year, and others only those who communicated on Easter day.

BRIEF NOTES

ON THE PRINCIPAL WORKS IN THEOLOGY AND CHURCH LITERATURE OF THE YEAR.

NOTE.—Messrs. James Pott & Co. will allow a liberal discount on all works (except those marked net) that are noticed under this head.

THEOLOGICAL AND HOMILETICAL.

A Critical Dissertation on the Athanasian Creed.
By G. D. W. OMMANEY, Prebendary of Wells.

There has been a singular lack of treatises on the Quicumque Vult, considering the unending discussions on its use and meaning. We therefore welcome this scholarly and exhaustive treatise as bringing up to the present time the account of the Creed from the date of Waterland's great work. The first part deals with the testimonies, canons and ecclesiastical injunctions, manuscript copies, commentaries, and versions, and the second part with the conclusions which such an investigation brings with it as to the language, date, authorship, and text of the Creed. (New York, Henry Frowde. $4.00 net.)

The Incarnation. A Study of Philippians, ii. 5-11. By E. H. GIFFORD, D.D.

In this dissertation the author's aim is to counteract the modern Protestant theology, which is finding favor not only in England, but also in this land, and whereby the humanitarian views of our Lord's life are exalted at the expense of the Divine. Dr. Gifford's work is more adapted for the student or the scholar than for popular use. It is as a mine to furnish arguments against some of the conclusions of such writers as Gore, Powell, Ottley, Ritchl, and Godet that we believe this work will have its chief value. (New York, Dodd, Mead & Co. $1.75.)

Cyprian, His Life, His Times, His Work. By EDWARD WHITE BENSON, D.D., D.C.L.

The late Archbishop has here gathered together not only all that is known concerning S. Cyprian and his writings, but has by an amount of patient erudition presented a striking portrait of the times in which the saint lived. In his prefatory note to this edition the Bishop of New York rightly points out what an attraction Cyprian must have had to Dr. Benson, for both had to grapple very much with the same problems of the Church and the world—with Christian unity and papal pretensions. To all interested in these problems of Christian statesmanship this "magnum opus" of Dr. Benson will have a living interest. (New York, D. Appleton & Co. $7.00.)

A View of the Atonement. By the REV. JAMES T. HUTCHESON, D.D.

Dr. Hutcheson in this able work shows very clearly that the current popular views of the Atonement are untenable. The Atonement of our Redeemer was neither a penal act, done to propitiate a wrathful Father, nor was it a price paid to the devil for the ransom of mankind. With much ability and patient logic, Dr. Hutcheson proves that the Atonement was the result of the Father's love. "God so loved us, that He gave His only begotten Son" to, and for, the human race.

It has been a reproach to the Church that the best books of recent times on the Atonement should have been from writers who do not fully accept her authority. Dr. Hutcheson has removed that reproach and has placed the Atonement in a far higher and truer light than any other writer. Preachers have, in their zeal for the vindication of the doctrines flowing from the Incarnation, rather neglected, of late years, those flowing from the Atonement. We predict a renewed interest in this great mystery, and feel confident that Dr. Hutcheson's book will mark an era in all theological discussions on the subject. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.00.)

Isaiah: A Study of Chapters i.-zii. By H. G. MITCHELL, Professor in Boston University.

Unlike most commentaries, this one is cast into the form of an almost continuous discussion of the words of the prophet. The peculiar merit of this work is its great wealth of archaeological and historical information. Mr. Mitchell has gleaned very widely, and as all this information is worked into the text, and not thrown into notes, it is brought home to the reader. (New York, Thomas Y. Crowell & Co. $2.00.)

Explanatory Analysis of S. Paul's First Epistle to Timothy. By H. F. LIDDON, D.D.

We have here a skeleton analysis drawn up for the use of Dr. Liddon's pupils when Ireland Professor of Exegesis; it is masterly, comprehensive in breadth, yet minute in detail. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. $1.75.)

Aspects of the Old Testament. By ROBERT LAURENCE OTTLEY.

In these Bampton Lectures for 1897, the author claims for his work that its aim "is to show that it is possible to regard as conclusive and to welcome with cordiality many verdicts of the 'Higher Criticism' without necessarily accepting what is merely conjectural and arbitrary." (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. $4.00.)

Footprints of the Apostles as Traced by S. Luke in the Acts. By HERBERT MORTIMER LUCKOCK, D.D.

Dean Luckock has here given us a couple of admirable volumes, which, as an exposition of the rise of the Church, cannot be too highly commended. The Dean, as his readers know, is always reverent in his style, and clear and concise in his arguments. In these pages we find the essential features of the ecclesiastical polity, as set forth in the Acts—the Sacred Ministry, Holy Orders, Apostolical Succession, Public Worship, Forms of Prayer, Preaching, Holy Baptism and Confirmation, Synodical Action, the Observance of Sunday, and the Catholicity of the Infant Church. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. 3 vols. $3.50.)

The Veracity of the Hezeateuch: A Defence of the Historic Character of the First Six Books of the Bible. By SAMUEL COLCORD BARTLETT, D.D., LL.D.

A remarkable work, exhibiting scholarship and research, and one in which the detractors of Holy Writ are met on their own ground. Many positions have been far too hastily surrendered or weakly apologized for by churchmen who have not had the courage to stand unmoved amid the Babel of criticisms. This work will come as a welcome surprise to such, proving to them how positions which had been taken for granted by friend and foe have had to be abandoned in view of the highest or most recent criticism. We commend this work as a valuable defence of the historic position. (New York, Fleming H. Revell Co. $1.50 net.)

An Introduction to the Literature of the Old Testament. By S. R. DRIVER, D.D. Sixth edition.

This is one of the volumes of the Theological International Library, of which the editors are Dr. Briggs, of New York, and Dr. Salmond, of Aberdeen.

Although Dr. Driver elaborately disclaims any intention of dealing either with "the theology or the history or even the study of the Old Testament," yet the most superficial reader of this Introduction cannot but perceive that he does deal with all three. It is inevitable that he should when dealing with the literature of the Old Testament, since the trend of the whole work is to make good the assertions of himself and other critics as to the trustworthiness, or not, of the sacred records. The book is interestingly written, but theories are reckoned as facts, and results taken for granted instead of being worked out and proved. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.50.)

Leo XIII. and Anglican Orders. The Proper Gift of the Christian Ministry and the Sacramental Mode of its Transmission. By the REV. THOMAS RICHEY, D.D.

A concise arraignment of the papal pretensions as exhibited in the late papal Bull. The learned professor deals with the question of rites and ceremonies, the sacrament of order; bishops, priests, and deacons; minor orders, the doctrine of intention, and the revised ordinal. We wish we had space to summarize the argument, but we must content ourselves with pointing out that Dr. Richey has conclusively shown that one of the fundamental errors of Romanism is the degradation of the episcopate, and that Rome has foisted in the place of the apostolic ministry a ministry of her own creation. Without going into minor details our author thus strikes at the root of the papacy, and has given to the Church a treatise which will commend itself to the reader the more it is studied. (New York, Crothers & Korth. $1.00 net.)

Vindication of Anglican Orders. By ARTHUR LOWNDES, D.D.

This work is opportune and important. The plan of the work follows the structure of the Bull Apostolica Curæ in all its sinuous course. We have the Introduction, the Historical Review, and the Liturgical Review. In the Introduction the arrangement and argument of the Bull are explained, and the question at issue and Pope Leo's method of procedure are clearly stated. In the Historical Review the various Papal and Legatine documents referred to in the Bull are carefully considered, and it is shown that their contents and intention are not accurately stated by Pope Leo, while he is convicted of serious mistakes and misquotations. The action of the Papal Legate in England in Queen Mary's day is examined in detail, with the result that the reader is led unhesitatingly to the conclusion that neither by word nor deed did the Popes of the day or their Legates condemn Edwardine Orders as invalid. Much light is thrown on the Papal policy in England during the reigns of Mary and Elizabeth and on the motives by which it was dictated. Special attention is given to the reign of Elizabeth, to the Papal overtures made to her, to her excommunication, and to her claim of sovereignty as supreme governor in Church and State as compared with Henry VIII.'s claim to be supreme head of the Church. The excommunication of Elizabeth is compared with that of Henry VIII., and it is clearly established that no question of orders entered into the excommunication of the Queen. The case of the French Calvinist and of J. C. Gordon and the Nag's Head Fable are examined. The important admissions of Leo XIII. are noted, and the Historical Review closes with an amusing but crushing reference to "Feria V." Much of the Liturgical Review is taken up with a detailed examination of the Anglican and Roman forms of ordination and consecration. The conflicting Roman declarations on matter and form are clearly stated; the contradictions between the Roman rubrics and prayers are exposed, and with merciless logic it is shown that the act of Roman ordination to the priesthood cannot safely be said to be completed until the close of the service—a conclusion at variance with the general Roman view. The validity of Anglican Orders on liturgical grounds is clearly established step by step, while the tables are turned, and the author shows the doubt and confusion attaching to Roman orders. The intention of the framers of the Anglican Ordinal is proved by quotations from the Prayer Book and Ordinal and from contemporaneous documents, while the idea of one uniform Catholic rite of ordination is shown to be a myth. Eight chapters are devoted to an examination of the true Christian Sacerdotium and its stewardship by Anglicans and Romans. A number of forms of ordination are collected, examined, and tested, the statement being made that the final judgment should be based on the entire service and not on detached prayers. Important chapters follow on the tradition of the instruments, the doctrine of intention, and the essentials of a valid ordination. A summary of the argument is followed by a chapter on the Eastern Church. The appendix contains many historical and liturgical documents. The index is almost a book of itself. (New York, James Pott & Co. 2 vols. $5.00 net.)

The Book of Isaiah. By the REV. GEORGE ADAM SMITH.

Belonging to the series entitled "The Expositors' Bible," these volumes are to be highly commended, and are certainly among the best of the series. Instead of elucidating by commenting only upon the evangelical prophecies of Isaiah, Mr. Smith has had the courage to deal with all the prophecies, and that in their chronological order. It is this unusual but really sound course which constitutes, perhaps, the chief value of this work. (New York, A. C. Armstrong & Son. 2 vols. $1.50 each.)

Philippian Studies. By H. C. G. MORELL, D.D.

Dr. Morell has drawn from St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians, as he very aptly calls them, lessons in faith and love. His method is first to examine into the full meaning of the text, then paraphrase it, and finally to pause and gather up and weigh the treasures so found. In this way we have a unique method of dealing with St. Paul's writings, yet one which certainly brings out the hidden fragrance and beauty of many passages otherwise passed over as of no special beauty. (New York, A. C. Armstrong & Son. $1.50.)

The Thirty-nine Articles of the Church of England. By EDGAR C. S. GIBSON, D.D. Volume II.

This second volume deals with Articles IX. to XXXIX. What we said last year of the first volume is true of this one: "The work is an honest attempt to explain the history of the Articles by contemporary history, and their doctrine by reference to patristic antiquity." Notwithstanding the author's explanation as to his reasons for devoting the whole of the first volume to eight Articles, we confess we would rather have had three volumes than have thirty-one Articles dealt with in one volume. We would like to have seen a far fuller treatment of Articles XX., XXII., XXV., XXVII., and XXXIX. The references to contemporary history are all too slight and meagre when dealing with these Articles. The true apology for the Articles lies in full and accurate knowledge of what their framers and their contemporaries believed and taught. Nevertheless, Dr. Gibson has placed all students under an obligation by these two volumes. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $2.25.)

A Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the Epistles to the Ephesians and to the Colossians. By REV. T. K. ABBOTT.

This volume belongs to the International Critical Commentary, and is one of the best belonging to that series. Erudite and exhaustive, it is chiefly philological, and thus becomes a necessity to all students of the Epistles commented on. It is only when once the philological force of a text is grasped that its spiritual meaning can be developed. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.50 net.)

Village Sermons. By the late F. S. J. HORT, D.D.

Twenty-four strong, able sermons written with great clearness of diction on very wide subjects. We specially recommend the one on "God's Love Shown in Christ's Death." (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.75.)

The Christ of Yesterday, To-day, and Forever, and Other Sermons. By EZRA HORT BYINGTON, D.D.

Very suggestive sermons. The evident aim of the preacher throughout is to show not only that the verities of the Gospel message are as true as they ever were, but, further, to show that they are as applicable to meet the fatalism engendered by our present trend of thought and the doubts and self-questionings of modern men as they were when first proclaimed to Jew and Gentile. (Boston, Roberts Bros. $1.25.)

The Culture of Christian Manhood. Sunday Mornings in Battell Chapel, Yale University. Edited by WILLIAM H. SALMON.

A collection of sermons by various prominent Protestant preachers to the Yale students. So far as preaching morality and a certain standard of manliness are concerned, these sermons may have had a certain value, but they lack the strong virility of the older Protestant divines, though we catch an echo of it in the sermon by Dr. Burrell, which is the strongest in the collection. (New York, Fleming H. Revell Co. 50 cents.)

The Message and the Messengers. By REV. FLEMING JONES, D.D.

An interesting little volume dealing with almost every variety of preaching, past and present, from the prophetic, the rabbinical, to that of our Lord Himself, onward to the Greek, the mystical, the mediæval, the Anglican, from the Reformation downward to our own times. (New York, Thomas Whitaker. $1.25.)

The Revelation of God in Christ, and Other Sermons. Preached at St. John's Church, Stamford, by the late REV. WILLIAM TATLOCK, D.D.

In commending these sermons Bishop Williams rightly describes them as "spiritual and edifying," and by whomsoever read we are convinced that they will be found helpful both intellectually and devotionally. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.25.)

Reasons for the Higher Criticism of the Hebraic. By the REV. ISAAC GIBSON, Rector St. John's Church, Norristown, Pa.

In this little volume Mr. Gibson endeavors to popularize such results of the higher criticism as he himself is prepared to accept. He does so with much fairness, and to such as are desirous of knowing just what results higher critics consider to have been established this work can be commended as convincing and reliable. (Philadelphia, George W. Jacobs & Co. 50 cents net.)

Sermons Preached in His Diocese. By the late REV. W. B. W. HOWE, D.D., Bishop of South Carolina.

The clergy of the diocese have done wisely in publishing these few sermons of their late diocesan. Clear, forcible, and vigorous in style, they all present the truth with a winning attractiveness that must have wrought conviction in many a hearer when spoken by the living voice. Read in the closet, they cannot fail to keep his teaching fresh, and will be helpful and edifying to those who were unacquainted with the man. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.75.)

The Great Example. By GEORGE HENEY SOMERSET WALFOLE, D.D.

To candidates for the sacred ministry unable to attend a retreat before their ordination, these addresses and meditations on the fourfold life of the ministry will be peculiarly helpful. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. 95 cents.)

AOPIA IHEOY. Sayings of Our Lord. Discussed and edited by BERNARD P. GRENFELL and ARTHUR S. HUNT.

We are here given a brief account of the discovery of a leaf from a papyrus book containing a collection of reported sayings of our Lord, and a reproduction of the Greek text. (New York, Henry Frowde. 15 cents.)

Our Life After Death. By the REV. ARTHUR CHAMBERS. Twenty-fifth edition. $1.00.

Glims Through the Shadows. By the REV. ARTHUR CHAMBERS. Fourth edition.

We have already commended the first volume as a reverent exposition of the mystery of death and the future life, and the fact that it has now reached a twenty-fifth edition attests its popular acceptance. The "Glims Through the Shadows" is not so conservative in treatment as the former work. We fear the author is paying the penalty of popular approval. He forgets, in his endeavor to make certain parts of the Gospel acceptable to the many, that sternness and justice are the correlatives of love and mercy. (Philadelphia, George W. Jacobs & Co.)

The Liturgy and Ritual of the Ante-Nicene Church. By F. E. WARREN.

It is by such research as this book evidences and by the collection of such material that an answer can be found to the question, "How far does the Book of Common Prayer retain or reflect primitive usage?" and for the future Mr. Warren's work will have to be placed side by side on our shelves with the other standard works on the Prayer Book. (New York, E. & J. B. Young & Co. $2.00.)

Helps to the Study of the Bible.

A valuable compendium of information for the student. It includes introductory notes to the several books, giving the history, scope, and summary of the book, the history and antiquities of the Jews, the results of modern discoveries, the natural history of Palestine, a glossary of antiquities, customs, etc., and many valuable tables, maps, etc., the whole forming an invaluable aid to the Bible and Sunday-school teacher. (New York, Henry Frowde. $1.50.)

Genesis and Modern Science. Illustrated with astronomical plates, a fine astronomical photograph, maps, colored diagrams, etc. By WARREN R. PERCE.

A carefully written treatise, based upon the nebular hypothesis, and demonstrating the scientific accuracy and literal truthfulness of the Scriptural records of the creation and the deluge by means of full and exhaustive references to most recent discoveries in astronomy and geology, and also by numerous citations of authorities in paleontology, botany, zoology, anthropology, and other sciences. Some of the theories advanced are startling, yet they are so well buttressed by references to ascertained facts that they deserve the most attentive consideration, as, for example, the changes of the earth's position relative to the ecliptic in the third day or period of creation. It is when noticing such works as these that we regret the absence of a Church Quarterly in which such works could be fully and justly reviewed. We can but strongly commend its perusal to our thoughtful readers. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.50.)

HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL.

Nippur; or, Explorations and Adventures on the Euphrates. By JOHN PUNNETT PETERS, D.D. With illustrations and maps.

The temple of Bel at Nippur was to the religion of Babylon and Assyria very much what the temple of Jerusalem was to the Jews. The records discovered extend at least 6,000 years back, and prove that even at that remote period writing and civilization were by no means in their infancy. The explorations at Nippur have carried our knowledge of civilized man back at least 2,000 years. These two handsome volumes, rich with illustrations of superior merit, give us the record of the two "campaigns" of the exploring expedition of the University of Pennsylvania in the years 1888-1890. (New York, G. P. Putnam's Sons. 2 vols. $2.50 each.)

History of Early Christian Literature in the First Three Centuries. By DR. GUSTAVE KRÜGER, Professor of Theology at Giessen.

This is hardly a history—there is no connected narrative. It is rather the publication of a series of notes used by a college professor. We regret to see the inclusion of New Testament writings in the scheme, and the positive utterances concerning their dates and authorships. It becomes, we suppose, a professor to be authoritative in his declarations, but in a published work of this nature we look for a presentation of both sides of the question. There is hardly any writing of the early Christians the date or authorship of which can be fixed with absolute certainty. The valuable part of the work we conceive to be the history of the writings themselves, their editions and translations. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $2.00.)

The Origin and Early History of Christianity in Britain from its Dawn to the Death of Augustine. By ANDREW GRAY, D.D.

Dr. Gray has here collected together all the scattered evidences which prove beyond peradventure, as Bishop Seymour says in his preface note, that Augustine began his work above ground, while others had laid the foundations beneath. A most handy volume for popular use. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.25 net.)

A History of Christianity in the Apostolic Age. By ARTHUR CUSHMAN MCGIFFERT, D.D.

Christian Institutions. By ALEXANDER V. G. ALLEN, D.D.

Two more volumes of the International Theological Library.

In Dr. McGiffert's work we have much that is distressing, both in the lack of reverential love when speaking of our Lord and in the arbitrary statements he makes concerning the motives of our Lord and of His Apostles. One would really think that the author was writing about his own acquaintances, so positive is he in his statements as to the reasons for their acts. It is a work which we can in no wise commend.

In the volume by Dr. Allen we have more modesty, and therefore more worth. The writer's object is evidently to give a full history of Christian institutions in a connected and readable form. But the trouble is that he leaves the impression on the reader that he does not believe that there were any settled Christian institutions in the beginning, that everything has been a matter of development since. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.50 each.)

Lectures on Ecclesiastical History. Delivered in Norwich Cathedral.

Fifteen lectures which may fitly be described as popular educational lectures on the lives of Ignatius, Polycarp, Justin Martyr, Tertullian, Irenæus, Cyprian, Chrysostom, Clement of Alexandria, Eusebius, Athanasius, and Ambrose. They will afford fit material for winter lectures to many of our own congregations. (New York, Thomas Whittaker. $2.25.)

History of the American Episcopal Church. By S. D. MCCONNELL, D.D. Seventh edition, revised and enlarged.

In the former editions of this bright and entertaining history Dr. McConnell stopped at the close of the Civil War. We are thankful that in this edition the author has brought his narrative down to date; and these later chapters will not be considered as the least readable and interesting of this bright and sparkling history. (New York, Thomas Whittaker. $2.00.)

Life of Edward Bouverie Pusey, D.D. By HENRY PARRY LIDDON, D.D. Edited and prepared by the REV. J. O. JOHNSTON, the REV. ROBERT J. WILSON, D.D., and the REV. W. C. E. NEWBOLT. Vol. IV.

This last volume of Liddon's life of Pusey covers the period between 1860 and 1882—that is, from the date of the publication of "Essays and Reviews" to that of Pusey's death. In closing the last volume one cannot but feel that it was the misfortune of Dr. Pusey to be mixed up in irritating controversies, and that had his lot been cast in calmer times he would have been able to have become what he evidently was especially trained to be, both by temperament and learning, a Christian apologist of the whole faith. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. $4.50.)

A Saint of the Southern Church. Memoir of the Rt. Rev. Nicholas Hanner Cobbs, First Bishop of Alabama. By GREENOUGH WHITE.

A sympathetic biography of a beautiful life. Bishop Cobbs was little known to the present generation, but if so this life is doubly welcome. The Church cannot afford to leave such lives unsung. The heroes of the Church are her saints, and their lives, when simply and unaffectedly told—as this one is—bring their message of comfort and patience and hope to all kindred souls. Mr. White gives us the story of the Bishop's life frankly and freely; his shortcomings and his gentle failings are not hidden, but serve as a background to bring out into relief the strong, full life lived in very close companionship with the Blessed Lord. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.00 net.)

The Church of the Sixth Century. By WILLIAM HOLDEN HUTTON.

In these six chapters in ecclesiastical history there are presented to us the State and the Church in East and West, the Eastern Church and its mission, the papacy, the Church and the heresies, the theology, and the art—all as they were in the sixth century. Covering as they do rather neglected portions of Church history, these lectures come at an opportune time, when events seem to be shaping for a juster appreciation of the history of the venerable East. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. $1.75.)

Rome the Middle of the World. By ALICE GARDNER.

The position and influence of Rome are traced through its early history to Augustus and onward through Nero, Hadrian, Constantine, Attila, Theodoric, the Emperors and Popes, Rienzi, and the Medicæ Popes. (New York, Edward Arnold. $1.25.)

Religions of Primitive Peoples. By DANIEL G. BRINTON.

This volume forms one of the second series of the "American Lectures on the History of Religions." In these brief lectures we have a sketch embodying some of the results of modern thought on primitive religions, and how the religious sentiment of the human race found expression in the Word, the object, and the rite. (New York, G. P. Putnam's Sons. $1.50.)

Harriet Starr Cannon. A brief memoir by MORGAN DIX.

Dr. Dix, who was for many years chaplain to the Sisterhood of S. Mary, gives us here not only the life of the first mother superior, but really a history of the sisterhood. Indeed, this was inevitable, seeing that for thirty-one years Sister Harriet's life was bound up and inseparable from that of the sisterhood. As the foundress of the principal American sisterhood and of the first Anglican sisterhood whose profession was received by a bishop, Sister Harriet's memory ought to be kept in special veneration by all American church-people; while to those who knew her personally the sweet reasonableness of her saintly life will ever abide as a holy memory. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. $1.25.)

A Memoir of Anne Jenima Clough. By BLANCHE ATHENA CLOUGE.

To few women has it been given to do so much for her fellow-women as it was given to Miss Clough, the foundress of Newnham College. Wherever there are women interested in the higher education of their sex this sympathetic memoir will be read with interest and edification. (New York, Edward Arnold. $4.00.)

France under Louis XV. By JAMES BRECK PERKINS.

Mr. Perkins is assuredly winning for himself a rank among the historians who have made New England literature renowned. To the Churchman the reign of Louis XV. is one of peculiar interest. The administration of Fleury, the cruel and cowardly persecution of the Huguenots, the rising hatred of the Jesuits, the quarrels over the bull "Unigenitus," the war of the Polish succession and that of the Austrian succession, the expulsion of the Jesuits, the partition of Poland, the beginning of the Encyclopedists, and the rise of Voltaire—all these were events fraught with such consequences to European Christianity that even at this distance of time we are only beginning to realize their full importance. Mr. Perkins has given us a careful, scholarly, and impartial presentation of those times, combined with a style singularly clear and lucid. (Boston, Houghton, Mifflin & Co. 2 vols. $4.00.)

The Evolution of France under the Third Republic. By BARON PIERRE DE COUBERTIER.

Not only a brilliant apology for the Third Republic, but something more—a remarkably fair examination into the ideas and habits which form the basis of the domestic, civil, and national life of France to-day. The chapters on the Republic and the Church, Education, Ideas and Habits, and the Social Question are the best in the volume. The author's treatment of these subjects is as acute as it is comprehensive. It has been justly observed that ideas emanate from England, but are worked out to practical results in France. As a means of study of these problems this volume will be welcome to all students of history or sociology. (New York, Thomas Y. Crowell & Co. $3.00.)

A History of Canada. By CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS.

Undoubtedly the best popular history of the Dominion of Canada. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $2.00.)

Pictures of Russian History and Russian Literature. By PRINCE SERGE WOLKONSKY.

Bright, sparkling, vivid pictures of Russian life, history, and literature. These Lowell Lectures have the peculiar merit of being written not by a foreigner, but a native, a man of position and of wide culture. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $2.00.)

GENERAL.

Christian Missions and Social Progress. A Sociological Study of Foreign Missions. By the REV. JAMES S. DENNIS, D.D. Vol. I.

There has been no such comprehensive treatment of the subject before this. We have, of late, been hearing much as to the value of Christian missions. Here is the reply—a reply not based on doctrinal, but on purely humanitarian questions. The home life, the social relationships, the national spirit—in one word, the whole environment of non-Christian people is studied. The result has been temperately stated by the author as a "present day supplement to the cumulative argument of history in defence of Christianity as a supreme force in the social regeneration and elevation of the human race." It is a matter of regret, however, that in the circular for information sent out to the different missionaries neither those of the Eastern or Roman Churches were included. A work like this cannot afford to be one-sided in its presentation of achieved results. (New York, Fleming H. Revell Co. $2.50.)

The Coming People. By CHARLES F. DOLE.

Pessimism has, we hope, had its day, and will shortly be out of fashion. Certainly this charming volume of essays is a harbinger of better days. It is refreshing to have a prophet once again lifting up his voice in favor of the ideal, and telling us that no permanent practical benefit can be wrought without a deep belief in an ideal. The habitual belief in the evil of the world makes the world evil. To alter the world we must believe in the triumph of goodness. All the depressing problems confronting our civilization in our country in these latter days are dealt with—such as the Law of Cost, the Problem of the Prosperous, the Ideal Democracy, and the Possible Revolution. We commend the book heartily to "the coming people," who are to prove the fallacy of the pessimism of this age. (New York, Thomas Y. Crowell & Co. $1.25.)

The Bible and Islam; or, The Influence of the Old and New Testaments on the Religion of Mohammed. By HENRY PRESERVED SMITH, D.D.

An able presentation of a timely subject. Dr. Smith's main argument, and we think he proves it with convincing clearness, is that it was not mere Judaism on which Mohammed engrafted his scheme of religion, but that rather his system was a Judaic Christianity adapted to Arab conditions. Being imperfectly taught the full verities of the Gospel, he grasped but half truths. This accounts both for what is most noble and true in Islamism and for what is hard and false. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons. $1.50.)

Twenty-six Years of Missionary Work in China. By GRACE STOTT. Second edition.

A fascinating account of missionary work in China by members of the Protestant China Inland Mission. However much we may differ doctrinally from the writer, yet no one can fail to be impressed with her patient, loving faith, and be gratified at the reward that, after many years of unselfish work, came in the conversion of such numbers to Christianity. Mrs. Stott quietly says: "For nearly ten years we saw but little spiritual fruit; two or three professed to believe in Jesus, but there was no corresponding power or change in their lives." To work for ten years without winning a convert is a rebuke to our own faithlessness here at home, when, as we say, our work does not prosper. Such lessons of patient well-doing, strong faith, and gentle ministering as are revealed in these interesting papers can convey teaching to all, even if we do not worship the Father in the same way. (New York, Fleming H. Revell Co. $1.75.)

Words for the Church. By the REV. EDGAR GARDNER MURPHY.

Six able tracts written for popular use in a clear and incisive style. The points dealt with are: The Churchman's Controversy Stated; Was Henry VIII. the Founder of the Church of England? Is the Episcopal Church Catholic or Protestant? The Church at the Beginning; The Church in the Ages; The Church Doctrine. We must, however, protest against the writer's assertion that the Apostolic succession is not de facto in the Church. The term may be new, but the fact has ever been the Church's doctrine. (New York, James Pott & Co. 50 cents.)

"A Way that Seemeth Right." An Examination of "Christian Science." By H. MARTYN HART, D.D.

Dean Hart has here exposed both the weakness and the strength of "Christian science."

He has shown the lessons for good and those for evil which are to be deduced from a consideration of its workings—its evil, that it attempts to set up a new Gospel and to make a shipwreck of the whole Christian faith, and that it professes to be able to cure all manner of ailments; the good, that it can bring rest and peace to many, and that it can heal such ailments as are brought on by the deranged condition of the nerves. In other words, that its lessons of quietness, meditation, and self-culture bring their own reward. His conclusion is twofold: He would have the medical profession add to its curriculum some such treatment as "Christian science" employs; and, on the other hand, he would have professors of "Christian science" consult the ordinary medical practitioner as to the nature of the ailment they are called upon to cure, so as to decide whether it comes under the category of a nervous disease or not. (New York, James Pott & Co. 75 cents.)

Christianity and Idealism. By JOHN WATSON, LL.D.

The first part of this work deals with the Christian ideal of life in relation to the Greek and Jewish ideals, the second with modern idealism in its relation to the Christian ideal of life. The work is an attempt to harmonize the German and French systems of philosophy and to a large extent modernize their presentation. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.75.)

Practical Idealism. By WILLIAM DE WITT HYDE.

"Practical idealism," the author claims, "is simply a presentation of the familiar facts of every-day life in their rational relations, as elements in a logical process and parts of an organic whole." He divides his theme into eight parts; four relate to the natural worlds of sense perception, association, science, and art, and four to the spiritual worlds of persons, institutions, morality, and religion. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.50.)

Christian Ethics. By THOMAS B. STRONG.

Under this title we have the Bampton Lectures for 1895. The position maintained in these lectures is that the Christian theory of moral life is not merely a new formulation of the old experience, nor is it merely a restatement of the old truths with certain new virtues added, but it is a view of life based upon a radically different experience of facts. The Christian ethic is the detailed presentation of the reconciliation of the finite and infinite by the incarnation in relation to the end of life and human nature, the theory of virtue, the idea of evil, and the general order of the universe as a whole. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co. $5.00.)

The Social Teachings of Jesus. An Essay on Christian Sociology. By SHAILER MATTHEWS.

The purport of this essay appears to be to view the teaching of our Lord in relation to modern scientific sociology. It purports to bring to its proper relationship the lessons of the Gospel as they effect the solidarity of the human race. A very able presentation of the subject. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.50.)

An Introduction to the Study of Society. By ALBION W. SMALL, Head Professor of Sociology in the University of Chicago, and GEORGE E. VINCENT, Vice-Chancellor of the Chautauqua System of Education.

The interest evidenced of late years in the investigation of social problems has made such a work a necessity, if these problems are to be studied in a scientific and consecutive manner. As a text-book on the subject this work will receive wide attention, and will largely help to concentrate and systematize thought on settled lines, and thus sociology may pass out of the stage of discussion and enter the realm of practical politics. As such a manual we heartily commend this work. (New York, American Book Co. $1.80.)

Parables for School and Home. By WENDELL P. GARRISON.

"Lessons in Applied Morals" is what the author terms these parables. The title of some of the subjects will illustrate the author's method: Emerson, or the Tenderness for Living Things; Rousseau, or Property; the Matter-horn, or Attainment; the Brooklyn Bridge, or the Insatiable Mind; the Pyramids, or Heredity. (New York, Longmans, Green & Co.)

Outlines of a Philosophy of Religion. Based on Psychology and History. By AUGUSTE SABATIER.

The threefold purpose of this work is to deal with Religion and its Origin, Christianity and its Essence, Dogma and its Nature. Under the first head the author treats of the Psychological Origin and the Nature of Religion, Religion and Revelation, Miracle and Inspiration, and the Religious Development of Humanity, and thus prepares the way for the introduction and development of Christianity. The Christian principle is traced from the direct teaching of our Lord, through Jewish, or Messianic Christianity, Catholic Christianity, and Protestant Christianity. The evolution of dogma is a natural consequence. This the writer treats of from two points of view, the historical and the scientific. Professor Sabatier is already well and favorably known through his life of S. Paul, and this work will enhance the author's reputation as a critical student of German or Kantian philosophy. It is the logical French mind endeavoring to harmonize and to reduce into an orderly system much of the modern philosophy, so as to reconcile it with the verities of the Gospel. (New York, James Pott & Co. $3.00.)

Bases of Religious Belief, Historic and Ideal.

By CHARLES MELLEN TYLER, D.D., Professor of the History and Philosophy of Religion and of Christian Ethics, Cornell University.

In this outline of religions study Dr. Tyler endeavors to bring to a closer agreement theology and anthropology, and we have in this work another attempt to summarize the conclusions of modern thought on man's present being and his future. (New York, G. P. Putnam's Sons. $2.00.)

Social and Ethical Interpretations in Mental Development. By JAMES MARK BALDWIN, Professor in Princeton University.

An able study in social psychology, which won a well-merited reward by being crowned with the gold medal of the Royal Academy of Denmark. It is comprehensive in its treatment, and exhibits much original thought, especially in the chapter on mental development. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $2.60.)

The Growing Revelation. By AMORY H. BRADFORD.

Clever sermons of a devout mind, who, instead of basing his religion on the Creeds, works out a religion for himself, working towards the dogmas of the Creeds rather than from them. The result is interesting, and shows how much the Congregational Church feels the need of some settled foundation whereon to build its scheme of religion. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.50.)

On Human Nature, Essays (partly posthumous) in Ethics and Politics. By ARTHUR SCHOPENHAUER. Selected and translated by T. BAILEY SAUNDERS.

Schopenhauer's essays, which are here translated, are those on human nature, government, free will and fatalism, character, moral instinct, and ethical reflections. (New York, The Macmillan Co. 90 cents.)

The Care of Souls. By JOHN WATSON, D.D. (Ian MacLaren).

Under this title we have the Lyman Beecher Lectures for 1896, which will amply pay perusal by clergy and laity. Beautifully written, they contain many most apt suggestions. The topics treated on are the genesis and technique of a sermon, problems of preaching, theology, the theory of religion, the new dogma, the machinery of a congregation, the work of a pastor, the public worship of God, and the minister's care of himself. (New York, Dodd, Mead & Co. $1.50.)

A Voice in the Wilderness. By ALGERNON SIDNEY CRAPSEY.

Under this title Mr. Crapsey pleads for "A Restoration of Primitive Christianity." By that term we believe he means a return to that deep sense of personal consecration which so mastered and overshadowed the early Christians; and as one of the means to this end he would have smaller dioceses than we have now, so as to secure a more complete oversight, or, as he himself puts it, "We need the small diocese in order that we may have the great Bishop." Mr. Crapsey rightly complains that the priest is the only one who has no pastor; the bishop has no time to give to individual ministrations. But whether a bishop would be a greater bishop or a more loving pastor if he had only thirty or fifty clergy under him is a mooted question. Still Mr. Crapsey's earnest plea deserves careful consideration, and especially by our laymen, for what the people want God gives them. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1, cloth; 50 cents, paper.)

The Book of Common Prayer of the Presbyterian Church. Edited by CHARLES W. SHIELDS, D.D.

We have no space to enter into a detailed examination of this work; we can only say that it appears to us to come the nearest to our Prayer Book of any publication that we have yet seen. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons. $1.50 net.)

A Book of Offices and Prayers for Priest and People. Compiled by two Presbyters of the Church.

A handy manual for use in parochial ministrations. The choice of prayers appears a happy one, and the spirit of them is thoroughly loyal to the American Church. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.00.)

The Bible and the Child.

Eight rather sketchy essays on the subject of how to present the Bible to the young in the light of the higher criticism. The spirit of these essays is aptly condemned by the anecdote given by one of the essayists, Dr. Gladden: "A little maid of seven, after listening with interest to the reading of Bible stories paraphrased for children, said, with a sigh, 'Yes, that is good, but I like the real Bible better.'" (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.00.)

The Devotions of Bishop Andrewes. Translated from the Greek and arranged anew by JOHN HENRY NEWMAN.

To this beautiful edition of an old favorite Dr. Morgan Dix has contributed an introduction in which he says: "Tired and sick of modern invention, and weary of the unreality of foreign types of devotional literature, we come back, with infinite comfort, to the sincere and pure aliment of a youth which seems to live once more in a revival of its truest aspirations." (New York, George H. Richmond & Co. $3.00.)

Thanksgivings after the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ. Compiled from ancient and modern sources by a layman of the American Church.

Dr. G. McClellan Fiske, in his introduction to this volume, rightly calls the collection "unusual, if not unique." Garnered from every field of the Church, these devotions form a fragrant chaplet of praise. We are glad to see such prominence given to the thanksgivings from the liturgies of the venerable East. That this collection should have been undertaken, as we gather from Dr. Fiske's preface, by a busy layman, speaks well for the inner life of such a man. Such laymen are the comfort of their priests and the joy of the Church. Long may we have them. The book is beautifully printed and will, we are sure, the more it is known, be the better appreciated. (New York, James Pott & Co. $1.00.)

Authors and Publishers. A Manual of Suggestions for Beginners in Literature. Seventh edition.

An exquisite sample of the publisher's art. Many an author will sigh as he contrasts the beauty and elegance lavished on this book of suggestions with the uncomely dress in which his children have been presented to the public. The work is an able plea in behalf of the publisher, though it contains very many excellent suggestions for the guidance of amateur authors. (New York, J. P. Putnam's Sons. $1.75.)

Books and their Makers during the Middle Ages. By GEORGE HAVEN PUTNAM. Vol. II.

This second volume deals with the period between 1500 and 1700. The first part treats of the Estiennes, Casaubon, Caxton, the Kobergers, Froben, Erasmus, Plantin, and the Elzevirs. In the second part we have a most extensive treatise on the beginnings of property in literature, the privileges and regulations in Italy, Germany, France, and England being dealt with separately. All lovers of books owe the author a debt of gratitude for his learned and comprehensive work now brought to a happy conclusion, and to the eminent firm of which he is a member an almost equal debt for the beautiful dress in which the book comes before the public. (New York, G. P. Putnam's Sons. $2.50.)

The Scholar and the State, and Other Orations and Addresses. By HENRY CODMAN POTTER, D.D., Bishop of New York.

Thoughtful readers of these addresses will, we think, be struck by the great underlying strength of them. The Bishop does not press all his arguments to a conclusion. One feels that there is a great reserve of force behind them. By virtue of his office a bishop is a ruler, and if he is to be a wise ruler he must be a scholar, and if his rule is to be accepted by many conditions of men, he must be a statesman. To a lesser degree, because the sphere of influence is more circumscribed, this must be equally true of every clergyman, and the doing of our duty to the State must surely be comprehended in the doing of our duty to our neighbor. Because the noisy partisan or shallow speaker has been to the fore in our politics, that is no reason why the Christian gentleman or priest should retire or leave the control of the State to such men. Rather it ought to be an incentive to them to be witnesses of better things. The problems touched upon by the Bishop of New York are many of them those which affect the very mainspring of our social existence—the relations of science to modern life, Christianity and the criminal, the rural reinforcement of cities, nobility in business, the ministry of music, the gospel for wealth. They are dealt with with a calm deliberation, the evident result of long and careful thinking. (New York, The Century Co. $2.00.)

Greek Art on Greek Soil. By JAMES M. HOPPIN.

The title fully describes the work. It is a volume dealing with Greek art as seen on Greek soil. We thus have a series of fresh and vivid impressions of a theme that, old as it is, must ever be welcome to all lovers of the beautiful in art. The buildings, the statues, the very fragments are thus described in their own setting. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.00.)

The God Idea of the Ancients; or, Sex in Religion. By ELIZA BURT GAMBLE.

The authoress states that the object of the book "is not only to furnish a brief outline of religious growth, but to show the effect which each of the two forces—male and female—has had on the development of our present God-idea," but we should put it more plainly as being an attempt to prove that the primitive idea was that God was a woman, and that when the world shall have progressed far enough it will revert to that pristine faith and worship a goddess. Through the work there runs the calm assertion that to all superior intellects Christianity has been proved to be a myth. (New York, G. P. Putnam's Sons. $2.25.)

Men I Have Known. By the VERY REV. FREDERICK W. FARRAR, D.D.

Dean Farrar is never dull, and in these chatty papers he introduces us and makes us acquainted with a very wide variety of celebrities, not only ecclesiastics like Tail, Magee, Trench, Benson, Newman, Pusey, and Church, but authors and statesmen like Bulwer-Lytton and Beaconsfield, Macaulay, Carlyle, and Du Maurier, and among his American acquaintances we have Emerson, Lowell, Longfellow, Whittier, and Childs. The Dean's remarks are all in good taste. The reproduction of several autograph letters add special interest to the book. (New York, Thomas Y. Crowell & Co. $1.75.)

Ex Libris, Essays of a Collector. By CHARLES DEXTER ALLEN.

A charming series of essays full of interest on the use of book-plates. Illustrations are given of fanciful, quaint, artistic, and graceful plates. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $3.00.)

The Mastery of Books. By HARRY LYMAN KOOPMAN.

An exceedingly useful little manual for all who are endeavoring, by the use of public libraries, to broaden their culture. The chapters on "What to Read," "How to Read," and "Reading Courses" are especially admirable. The classified list of books will be found very useful, as, besides giving the standard works in general literature, it gives those in special subjects, such as architecture, music, sculpture, painting, engraving, photography, decoration, etc., etc. (New York, American Book Co. 90 cents.)

The Choir Invisible. By JAMES LANE ALLEN.

We depart from our custom as to mention of novels in these "Brief Notes" in this instance on account of the very peculiar merits of "The Choir Invisible." The story is told with so much beauty and strength, the characters are so living and real, and the ending so human, and therefore so artistic, and the style so charming that this work is placed far above the ordinary level of clever novels. It is a work of genius, reminding us of Hawthorne and Irving. (New York, The Macmillan Co. $1.50.)

Style. By WALTER RALEIGH.

A charming and instructive essay. (New York, Edward Arnold. $1.50.)

Vesper Bells and Other Verses. By the REV. H. G. BATTERSON, D.D.

The poetic faculty is so rare that it ought to be welcomed wherever met. In several of these verses Dr. Batterson has shown that he can be a sweet singer of Israel. Those entitled "Pleasant Words" and "Aching Hearts" are especially beautiful, and we wish that some of the carols and hymns could be set to music; they would speedily become great favorites. As a Christmas or Easter present this dainty volume will be the very gift to knit both donor and receiver together by ties of gentle memories. The messages of hope and beauty, of sorrow endured, and of victory won will bind the reader, the author, and the giver into one chaplet of remembrance. (New York, James Pott & Co. $2.00.)

Paul Mercer. A Story of Repentance Among Millions. By JAMES ADDERLEY.

A work by the author of "Stephen Remarx" is sure to be both original and interesting. Like "Stephen Remarx," "Paul Mercer" deals with the problems of religion as they affect the toilers under our present civilization. The interest of the story never flags, and we predict a success for "Paul Mercer." (New York, Edward Arnold. $1.25.)

The Complete Poetical Works of Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Oliver Wendell Holmes's poems have long since won their way to be ranked among our American classics. It is sufficient to say that this is the "Cambridge Edition" of these works for the reader to be assured of the excellency of the printer's art. (Boston, Houghton, Mifflin & Co. $1.25.)

Curiosities of Popular Customs and of Rites, Ceremonies, Observances, and Miscellaneous Antiquities. By WILLIAM S. WALSH.

Well written and well arranged, this work will prove invaluable as a ready reference book. (Philadelphia, J. B. Lippincott Co. $3.25.)

GIFT BOOKS.

Andronike, the Heroine of the Greek Revolution. By STEPHANOS THEODOROS XENOS. Translated from the original Greek by EDWIN A. GROSVENOR.

The plot of this story is not laid in the last war, but in that of the revolution of 1821. It is full of incident and adventure, and gives in vivid color a graphic portrayal of the people, their manners and customs. As a novel of romance and adventure it ranks very high, while its historic setting adds value to its interest. (Boston, Roberts Brothers. $1.50.)

The Son of Ingar. By KATHARINE PEARSON WOODS.

A fascinating tale of apostolic times, full of romance and adventure, but written throughout in reverential spirit. (New York, Dodd, Mead & Co. $1.25.)

Robert the Bruce and the Struggle for Scottish Independence. By SIR HERBERT MAXWELL, Bart.

Belonging to the series "Heroes of the Nations," this biography will be a welcome present to any lad. The photo-engravings of the scenes connected with the hero are many, and it need not be said that the work is written by an enthusiastic admirer of the Bruce. (New York, G. P. Putnam's Sons. $1.50.)

Founded on Paper; or, the Uphill and Downhill Between the two Jubilees. By CHARLOTTE M. YONGE.

The story of the doings in the two parishes of Uphill and Downhill, and of what came of a factory for papier mâché established at the latter place. Told simply and unaffectedly, and yet with that strong moral background that characterizes all Miss Yonge's stories. (New York, Thomas Whittaker, $1.25.)

Perpetua. A Tale of Nimes in A. D. 218. By the REV. S. BARNÉ GOULD.

A stirring story of early Christian days. (New York, E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.25.)

Tvinette and Other Stories. By BARBARA YECHTON.

A collection of short stories gracefully written and of peculiar interest to members of the Girls' Friendly Society. (New York, Thomas Whittaker. 75 cents.)

The Green Pastures.

A collection of poems gathered from a very wide range of authors on the beauty and value of Cheer, Faith, Hope, and Comfort. The selection has been carefully made, and this dainty little volume will be a welcome gift to many with its messages of sunshine and hope. (New York, E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.25.)

A Hero in Homeespun. By WILLIAM E. BARTON.

A tale of the loyal South during the Civil War. Full of interest and adventure. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $1.50.)

Vera Vorontzoff. By SONYA KOVALEVSKY. Rendered into English by ANNA VON RYDINGSVARD.

A vivid picture of Russian life of the present day from the standpoint of view of an ardent, high-strung woman who strives to give to her country political freedom. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $1.25.)

A Son of the Old Dominion. By MRS. BURTON.

A tale of the days of Washington, gracefully and interestingly told. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $1.50.)

Fairy Tales. By MABEL FULLER BLODGETT.

A delightful book of fairy tales, charmingly illustrated with quaint pictures, and printed in large, clear type. In every way a beautiful gift-book for children. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $1.50.)

Fabius, the Roman; or, How the Church Became Militant. By REV. E. FITCH BURR, D.D., LL.D.

A stirring story of love and adventure of Rome in the fourth century, and how the Christians suffered under Maxentius. (New York, The Baker & Taylor Co. $1.50.)

The Romance of a Jesuit Mission. A historical novel by M. BOURCHIER SANFORD.

The scene is laid at Fort Sainte Marie, near the present town of Midland, Canada, and is a charming story, showing the devotion of the early missionaries, and the hazardous life of traders and hunters during the seventeenth century. (New York, The Baker & Taylor Co. $1.25.)

King Noanett. By F. S. STIMSON.

A story of old Virginia and the Massachusetts Bay at the close of the seventeenth century. Written much after the style then in vogue, and giving a very accurate description of the plantation life in those early days. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $1.50.)

The Gold Fish of Gran Chimú. By CHARLES F. LUMMIS.

A stirring tale of adventure in Peru, among mummy mines and mummy miners, giving a picture of life and manners of a practically unknown country. (Boston, Lamson, Wolfe & Co. $1.50.)

THE SUCCESSION OF BISHOPS IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH.

The American Bishops derive their succession through the first four Bishops, Seabury, White, Provoost, and Madison, and these in turn derived their succession from the Scottish and English Episcopate. Bishop Seabury was consecrated by Bishop Kilgour, Bishop of Aberdeen and Primus, by Bishop Petrie, Bishop of Ross and Moray, and by Bishop Skinner, Coadjutor to Bishop of Aberdeen. Bishop White and Bishop Provoost were both consecrated on the same day by Archbishop Moore, 88th Archbishop of Canterbury, by Archbishop Markham of York, by Bishop Moss of Bath and Wells, and by Bishop Hinchliffe of Peterborough. Bishop Madison was consecrated on September 19, 1790, by Archbishop Moore, by Bishop Portens of London, and by Bishop Thomas of Rochester.

The Scottish Bishops derive their succession through Bishops Sharpe, Fairfoul, Leighton, and Hamilton, who were consecrated on December 15, 1661, by the then Bishops of London, Worcester, Carlisle, and Llandaff.

The English Bishops derive their succession from the Apostles S. John, S. Peter, and S. Paul, who in turn derived their succession from our Lord JESUS CHRIST.

Ἐκ τῶν τούτων (Ἐπισκοπῶν, πρεσβυτέρων, διακόνων) ἐκκλησία οὐ καλεῖται. Without these (Bishop, Presbyters, Deacons), a Church is not called."—Ignatius Epistle to the Trallians, ¶ iii.

S. Ignatius was Bishop of Antioch, and a reputed pupil of S. John; he was martyred under Trajan in either A. D. 107 or 116.

‘CHURCH AND BIBLE TRUTHS.’

BY THE REV. W. S. SIMPSON-ATMORE.

New Edition, 168 pp., 12mo, cloth, 50c net.

THE REV. MORGAN DIX, D.D.:

“I have read with great interest and pleasure your work. I think it well adapted to the present times, sound and convincing. I hope that it may have a wide circulation, as the teaching is particularly that which is most needed at the present day. It will give me pleasure to aid you in any way which may be in my power, in securing readers for your work.”

THE CHURCHMAN:

“This excellent book occupies an intermediate position between Bishop Thompson’s ‘First Principles,’ and Little’s ‘Reasons for being a Churchman.’ It is fuller than Bishop Thompson’s admirable tract, and less elaborate than the work Bishop Williams called ‘The almost Perfect Book.’” as it enters the fifty-fourth year of its useful career, promises its readers and churchmen generally, that during 1898 it will be more valuable and interesting than ever before. Its staff of editors has been largely increased, and every department of the paper has been strengthened and rendered more effective.

Aside from purely religious subjects to which THE CHURCHMAN will primarily devote its attention, plans have been perfected in order that what is best in the domain of Art, Literature, and Music will be discussed by specialists in an entertaining and instructive manner.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION—Great interest attaches to the coming General Convention, to meet in 1898 at Washington. The discussions of important subjects to be considered there, and the report of the proceedings, are alone worth more than a year's subscription.

There are many interesting features of THE CHURCHMAN which render it invaluable to every churchman, but there is not space to enumerate them. Please send for prospectus, with sample copy of THE CHURCHMAN, which will be sent promptly on application.

"To the contents of 'The Treasury' the very first scholars of England and America have contributed. Thirty-eight men, the specialists of Biblical learning, have been employed in this work. The Teachers' Bible puts into a brief compass all the learning of Biblical interpreters, and places its results in the hands of the people. We pronounce this edition of the Bible not only a magnificent tribute to the worth and permanence of the great Book as a piece of inspired literature, but also a convenient, most concise, complete and beautiful storehouse of Scriptural knowledge and study."

THE MODERN READER'S BIBLE

A Series of Books from the Sacred Scriptures, presented in Modern Literary Form, by RICHARD G. MOULTON, M.A. (Camb.), Ph.D. (Penn.), Professor of Literature in English in the University of Chicago.

THE NEW TESTAMENT IN FOUR VOLUMES.

ST. MATTHEW, ST. MARK, and the GENERAL EPISTLES. Ready in January. The title indicates the contents of this volume. It will also include The Epistle to the Hebrews, thus giving the complete New Testament in the four volumes.

ST. LUKE and ST. PAUL. Ready in April. A Double Number—Two Volumes. The Gospel of St. Luke will be followed by The Acts of the Apostles, with the Pauline Epistles introduced at the several points of the history to which they are usually referred. It gives an opportunity of studying the unbroken History of the New Testament Church.

ST. JOHN. Ready in May. This volume will contain the Gospel, Epistles, and Revelation of St. John.

Announcement. THE MACMILLAN COMPANY calls attention to a change of plans by which that volume of the Modern Reader's Bible, containing St. Matthew, St. Mark, and the General Epistles appear early in January instead of as at first announced, in April. Thus those who are expecting to use the first Gospel in Sunday School work during that month can count upon having the aid of this convenient form of the text. No daintier gift, by the way, could be made to a member of one's class than one of these little leather bound volumes.

THE OLD TESTAMENT WILL BE COMPLETE IN SEVENTEEN VOLUMES ON THE ISSUE OF

THE PSALMS (Two Volumes). Ready in February. Besides the whole of the Psalms, the Book of Lamentations will be included in the forthcoming volume, so that the complete Old Testament will then be obtainable.

The order in which volumes now ready have been issued is as follows:

WISDOM SERIES

IN FOUR VOLUMES.

THE PROVERBS. A Miscellany of Sayings and Poems embodying Isolated Observations of Life.

ECCLESIASTICUS. A Miscellany including longer compositions, still embodying only Isolated Observations of Life.

ECCLESIASTES—WISDOM OF SOLOMON. Each is a Series of Connected Writings embodying, from different standpoints, a Solution of the Whole Mystery of Life.

THE BOOK OF JOB. A Dramatic Poem in which are embodied Varying Solutions of the Mystery of Life.

DEUTERONOMY. The Orations and Songs of Moses, constituting his Farewell to the People of Israel.

BIBLICAL IDYLS. The Lyric Idyl of Solomon's Song, and the Epic Idyls of Ruth, Esther, and Tobit.

HISTORY SERIES

IN FIVE VOLUMES.

GENESIS. Bible History, Part I: Formation of the Chosen Nation.

SCRIBNER'S NEW THEOLOGICAL WORKS

A CONCORDANCE TO THE GREEK TESTAMENT.

According to the texts of Westcott and Hort, Tischendorf, and the English Revisers. Edited by the Rev. W. F. MOULTON, M.A., D.D., and Rev. A. S. GEDEN, M.A. 4to, $7.00 net.

Of this most important volume the Congregationalist says: "A great work it is and worthily executed. The average minister will certainly be buying at least four books at $1.75 each, and will think he cannot buy the book before us at $7.00. We must earnestly protest against such a foolish and suicidal preference." The British Weekly, too, has said: "It would be difficult to overpraise this invaluable addition to Biblical study . . . it is a book which ought to be on the study table of every minister and student."

Three Volumes in the International Theological Library:

CHRISTIANITY IN THE APOSTOLIC AGE

By ARTHUR C. MCGIFFERT, D.D., Ph.D., Professor of Church History, Union Theological Seminary. 8vo, pp. 681, $2.50 net.

"Dr. McGiffert seems to me to have taken away the veil which has so long obscured the Apostle Paul, and to have made his teaching clear and luminous."—Dr. LYMAN ABBOTT.

CHRISTIAN INSTITUTIONS.

By A. V. G. ALLEN, D.D., Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, Mass. Crown 8vo, pp. 565, $2.50 net.

This very important volume is divided into three great "books"—I. "The Organization of the Church," II. "The Catholic Creeds and the Development of Doctrine," and III. "Christian Worship." It is at once minute and comprehensive, and supplies an invaluable perspective view of the subject.

THE LITERATURE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

By S. R. DRIVER, D.D., Professor of Hebrew in Oxford University. Crown 8vo, $2.50 net.

A new and revised edition from new plates of Canon Driver's great work, of which Dr. Philip Schaff has said: "It is the most scholarly and critical work in the English language on the literature of the Old Testament." The bibliography has here been brought up to date, and an account of the critical views on the Old Testament promulgated since 1871 has been inserted.

For list of previous and forthcoming volumes see complete catalogue.

The International Critical Commentary:

"This series will stand first among all English serial commentaries on the Bible."

By Rev. MARVIN R. VINCENT, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature in Union Theological Seminary. 8vo, $2.00 net.

For list of previous and forthcoming volumes see complete catalogue.

THE PROVIDENTIAL ORDER OF THE WORLD.

By ALEXANDER BALMAIN BRUCE, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and New Testament Exegesis, Free Church College, Glasgow. (The Gifford Lectures, 1896-97.) $2.00.

"The exceptional scholarship of the author, the brilliancy and effectiveness of his logic, and the persuasiveness of his style, combine to make these lectures important contributions to current religious thought."—Boston Beacon.

THE BIBLE AND ISLAM;

Or, The Influence of the Old and New Testaments on the Religion of Mohammed. (Being the Ely Lectures for 1897.) By HENRY PRESERVED SMITH, D.D. 12mo, $1.50.

"He has rendered every student of religions a great service in this unpretentious volume."

—The Watchman.

THE LIFE OF PHILIP SCHAFF.

By DAVID S. SCHAFF, Professor of Church History in Lane Theological Seminary. With portraits. 8vo, $3.00.

The life of the late Dr. Schaff was a particularly representative one. Born a Swiss and educated in Germany, he passed his mature life in America, connected closely with the theological instruction of youth, with the liberal movement in Biblical criticism, and with the Evangelical Alliance. He was a scholar of world-wide reputation and left much material of especially varied interest, on which his son has based an instructive biography.

THE PLACE OF DEATH IN EVOLUTION.

By NEWMAN SMYTH, D.D., New Haven, Conn. 12mo, $1.25.

"His reasoning is close, calm and lucid, his intellectual grasp masterly, while his style is simplicity itself."—Chr. st. an Advocate.

"An ideal example of the best modern theological method of dealing with difficult and subtle themes."—The Independent.

JUST PUBLISHED:
HYMNAL OF THE CHURCH, WITH MUSIC.

Edited by Rev. JAMES H. DARLINGTON, D.D., Rector of Christ Church, Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE NEED.

The great need of an edition of the Revised Hymnal, with music in compact form for the use of choir and congregation alike, has been widely felt throughout the Church. To supply the demand for a book that is satisfactory from a musical standpoint, yet portable in form, is the object of the present edition. The editor, in his own parish, felt the want of a musical Hymnal that could be placed in every pew at a moderate cost; one that would give to the congregation, in a single, handy volume, the very best popular Church music. His need has been that of nearly every parish priest in the land, and, to meet it, a book answering such requirements has been most carefully prepared. Hearty, soul-stirring congregational singing can now be had in our churches with this new edition of the Hymnal in the hands of the worshippers. Rectors and Organists are invited to give it a careful examination.

DESCRIPTION.

Size, 12mo ($4\frac{3}{4}$ x 7 inches); weight, 14 ounces; printed on pure white "Bible" paper, of durable texture and great opaqueness; binding simple, attractive, and dignified.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS FOR 1898.

Clergymen or Sunday School Workers are invited to examine the Quarterly Publications edited by the Rev. GEORGE W. SHINN, D.D. These Lessons have for twenty years followed the uniform scheme of the Joint Diocesan Committees, whose lessons are now studied regularly by over three hundred and fifty thousand children in our Sunday Schools, and have the hearty endorsement of nearly every Bishop and Rector in the land. The theme of lessons from Advent, 1897, to Trinity, 1898, is on "The Life of our Lord." It is one of the most interesting series of lessons in the Committee's schedule. The four publications edited by Dr. Shinn are as follows:

PICTURE LESSONS

(for Primary and Junior Grades), 12 cents per year.

THE LESSON BOOK

(for Middle and Senior Grades), 12 cents per year.

THE BIBLE CLASS MANUAL,

20 cents per year.

THE TEACHERS' ASSISTANT,

25 cents per year.

These Quarterlies have a larger circulation than all similar publications combined, and having been issued under the one editor and one publisher for many years, subscribers can depend upon a ripe and experienced editorship, together with promptness in publication and delivery.

A SAMPLE OF EACH FOR EXAMINATION WILL BE SENT FREE ON APPLICATION. ADDRESS

THE GENERAL BOARD OF MISSIONS

LEGAL TITLE [FOR USE IN MAKING WILLS]: The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

Offerings are asked to sustain missions in nineteen missionary jurisdictions and forty-one home dioceses, including missions to the Indians and the colored people in our land, as well as missions in China, Japan, Africa, Haiti, and Greece—to pay the salaries and traveling expenses within their jurisdictions of twenty-one Bishops, and stipends to 1,478 missionary workers, and to support schools, hospitals, and orphanages. $650,000 are asked for this year; relying upon the generous offerings of men, women and children in all parts of the Church. Remittances should be made payable to Mr. George C. Thomas, Treasurer, and communications should be addressed to the General Secretary, Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York.

THE CHILDREN'S LENTEN OFFERING has been the means of largely increasing the gifts of Sunday-Schools, for Missions. Every Sunday-School should join in this movement and make the offering at Easter, 1898, reach $100,000, as a memorial of the late Rev. Dr. Langford.

A WEEKLY CHURCH JOURNAL AND FAMILY PAPER.

REV. C. W. LEFFINGWELL, D.D.,
Editor and Proprietor.

Subscription, in advance, $2.00. To the Clergy, in advance, $1.50.

THE LIVING CHURCH aims to give a weekly record of the Work, the News and the Thought of the Church, with especial reference to the Anglican Communion, and the interests of that portion of it "known in law" as The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. Reports of diocesan and parish work are furnished by paid correspondents in all great Church centers; Church questions are frankly and fairly discussed in the editorial columns; public opinion is voiced in "Letters to the Editor"; current literature finds abundant room on "The Editor's Table"; entertaining reading is provided for the young. Only high-class advertisements are solicited.

THE CHURCH STANDARD

With the issue of November 6th, 1897, THE CHURCH STANDARD published the first number of its twelfth volume under the present editorial management. It appeared in a new "dress," and with an increase in its reading matter, which will be maintained throughout the year.

THE CHURCH STANDARD will continue to be true to the Catholic Church, and therefore true to the Protestant Episcopal Church. It will remain perfectly independent and absolutely free from party spirit. It will treat questions which may arise from time to time in the Church with the utmost candor, not expecting that its views will always be right, but desiring, so far as it can, to assist in the forming of a wise and charitable public opinion.

The Foreign Correspondence, which is universally admired, will be enlarged by communications from an expert in the ecclesiastical movements of Europe.

The Home News will be increased and include letters from special correspondents in all the principal cities of the country.

The "Open Court" affords an opportunity for free expression of opinion by correspondents, whether they may agree or disagree with the views of the editor.

The department of Music and Art gives week by week a new piece of sacred music, with notes on all matters of interest pertaining to this department.

The Book Notices are carefully and conscientiously written. Reviews of theological and technical works are furnished by experts.

The Home Reading will be greatly enlarged. It will contain "The Parson's Outlook," by the well-known W. B. B.; a Short Sermon on the Christian Life, by an American bishop or presbyter; original articles on topics of contemporary interest; selections from other periodicals; a column of Notes for Men and another column of Notes for Women.

The Children's Corner is in competent hands. Its purpose is to instruct as well as to interest and amuse our juvenile readers. The Puzzle Department of the Children's Corner, we are glad to say, is not only appreciated by our young readers, but has received very high commendation from a distinguished professor of mathematics.

CHURCH BELLS

AN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH. ADAPTED TO LOCALIZATION.

Subscription: 50 cents a year. Single copies: 5 cents each.
10 copies, per year, $2.00. 100 copies, per month, $2.00.
(Twenty-five cents per hundred extra, where mailed to individuals.)

CHURCH BELLS, in the past years of its existence, has exerted a marked influence upon the people of the parishes in which it has circulated. It has aroused the careless, informed the ignorant, raised the standard of sound Churchmanship, and converted a number of those outside the Church to her doctrines and usages.

CHURCHMEN SHOULD READ AND CIRCULATE IT.

PARISH SUPPLEMENT consists of the 8 inside pages of Church Bells (for parochial distribution). $1.50 per hundred.

HAVE A PARISH PAPER

THE "CHURCH BELLS" arrangement provides an interesting, attractive paper at far less cost than a wholly local paper. Rectors can depend upon it to contain only sound Church teaching.

HOW? If you are not situated near New York it is best to have your local printing done at home, and let us furnish you with blanks.

BLANKS 8 pages, are furnished with small head that is cut off in the trim, carriage free for $1.50 per hundred. (Style A.)

This necessitates a 4 page local paper.

12 pages, with 1 or 2 pages left blank, for $2.00 per hundred.

4 pages, with 1 page blank, for $1.00 per hundred.

4 pages, with 2 pages blank, for 75 cents per hundred.

LOCAL ISSUES printed entire by us, cost $5.00 for the first hundred, including 1 page of locals. Each additional hundred costs $2.00, and each additional local page costs $2.50; thus 300 copies, 2 pages local, would be $11.50 per month. It can be used ten months in the year or quarterly. Covers with desirable advertising supplied free.

ADVERTISEMENTS, properly handled, can be made to pay the cost of the paper, and give a parish a valuable medium (that could not otherwise be afforded). The best way to handle the advertising is to divide the last page into 27 blocks of 1 inch, charge $2.00 each for a year, which means an income of $54.00. By having the advertisements set once, and then electrotyped, the cost of the advertising page would be but 85 cents per issue, making the paper cost the parish but $4.50 per year. A subscription price ought always to be charged and nearly all this revenue can be applied to parochial objects.

BY

MISS MARY E. HUTCHESON

These Lessons, designed to provide four years of graded instruction for children in the Primary Department, are thoroughly in accord with modern educational thought, as to the best methods of teaching the young, as well as Churchly in character. The author, a Churchwoman, is a trained teacher of wide experience in both secular and religious educational work. The First and Second Year's Lessons (now ready) include:

“THE OLD, OLD STORY OF JESUS AND HIS LOVE,”

a series of Lessons for the first half of the Church Year, each Lesson being as far as possible in harmony with the Gospel for the Day, and

“THE DISCIPLES OF JESUS; OR,
STORIES OF THE APOSTLES, SAINTS AND MARTYRS,”

a series of Lessons for the Trinity Season.

In the presentation of the above a Picture Lesson Leaf with simple home work is provided for the youngest children, or children of kindergarten age, and a Primary Lesson Leaflet (four pages) with Sewing Card for children of the First Primary Grade; and the same Primary Lesson Leaflet with a Text Card (to be colored by the children) for the Additional or Substitute Year.

In providing home work for the youngest children, the Picture Lesson

Leaf aims to impress upon them only a few of the most important points in each lesson. It is designed that each child shall spend at least two years upon the same lesson material.

The Lesson Subjects for the First, Second and Third Years are as follows:

I.—“THE OLD, OLD STORY.”

First Sunday in Advent. The Story begun.
Second Sunday in Advent. The Promise.
Third Sunday in Advent. The Messenger.
Fourth Sunday in Advent. The Babe of Bethlehem. (Two Picture Cards.)
First Sunday after Christmas. The Babe Named and Taken to the Temple.
Second Sunday after Christmas. The Visit of the Wise Men.
First Sunday after the Epiphany. The Boy Jesus in the Temple.
Second Sunday after the Epiphany. The Water Made Wine.
Third Sunday after the Epiphany. The Soldier's Servant.
Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany. A Storm at Sea.
Septuagesima. Laborers in the Vineyard.
Sexagesima. The Parable of the Sower.
Quinquagesima. Light to the Blind.
First Sunday in Lent. Jesus in the Wilderness.
Second Sunday in Lent. Jesus Enters Jerusalem.
Third Sunday in Lent. The Last Supper.
Fourth Sunday in Lent. Jesus in the Garden.
Fifth Sunday in Lent. Jesus in the Judgment Hall.
Sunday Next Before Easter. Jesus on the Cross. (Two Picture Cards.)
Easter day. Jesus Risen.
First Sunday after Easter. The Walk to Emmaus.
Second Sunday after Easter. Peace be Unto You.
Third Sunday after Easter. Feed My Lambs.
Fourth Sunday after Easter. The Promise of the Comforter.
Fifth Sunday after Easter. The Ascension.
Sunday after the Ascension. Waiting for the Promise of the Father.

Whitsunday. The Gift of the Holy Ghost.
Trinity Sunday. The Holy Trinity.

II.—THE DISCIPLES OF JESUS; OR, STORIES OF THE APOSTLES, SAINTS AND MARTYRS.

The Lessons are on S. Andrew, S. Thomas, S. Stephen, S. John (Evangelist), The Conversion of S. Paul, S. Matthias, S. Mark, S. Philip and S. James, S. Bartholomew, S. Matthew, S. Luke, S. Simon and S. Jude, S. Ignatius, S. Alban, S. Patrick, S. Columba, S. Augustine and S. Aidan, S. Boniface, All Saints.

With the use of the (1) "Picture Lesson Leaf," (2) "The Primary Lesson with Sewing Cards," and (3) "The Primary Lessons with Text Cards," the above constitute a course of three years' instruction. While the main topic is the same throughout, the mode of studying and doing the lesson is varied to such an extent as to make, practically, three distinct lessons, devoid of repetition or monotony.

THREE GRADES

are provided for by the lessons now ready.

TEACHERS' MANUAL.

A Teachers' Manual in four parts containing all necessary helps for teachers, as well as other matter of general interest to Primary Sunday School workers, is also provided.

THE NEXT GRADE.

In Advent, 1898, it is purposed to follow the first series of lessons with

"The Promised Messiah; or, Stories of Those who Waited for the Saviour," a series of lessons on Old Testament Characters, with lesson leaflet and home work adapted to children of the Second Primary Grade.

The Publication of the Concluding Series for the Third Primary Grade will follow.

THE NEW EDUCATION.

In the preparation of the New Education Series of Primary Lessons the aim has been not only to have the subject matter and its method of presentation adapted to the child, but to make these first lessons fundamental as to their relation to the whole story of Christian truth which the Church teaches a child must "Know and Believe to his soul's health."

Use is made in these lessons of the Church's symbolism in color and design in recognition of the educational principle "that the child in his progress toward the spiritual and the invisible may be led by the concrete and the visible."

These lessons are the first of their kind to be printed in colors to emphasize the teaching of the Church's seasons.
